Valery Lang Lowe, Ed.D.

Dr. Valery Lowe, a lifelong resident of Forsyth County, currently serves as the Director of College & Career Development for Forsyth County Schools. She received her undergraduate, master's, and doctorate degrees from the University of Georgia in workforce education. Prior to her current role, she served in the Superintendent's Office with Forsyth County Schools and also as adjunct faculty member for Lanier Technical College. Her current works focuses on the growth and development of career and technical education in the school system, as well as community partnerships, student internships, teacher externships, and dual enrollment. Forsyth County is home to over 48,000 students, so a large focus is on workforce development and the skills of the future. Valery's work focuses on pipeline partnerships and providing the skills necessary to meet the needs of a future workforce. Truly passionate about the Forsyth County community, Valery is involved with the Cumming/Forsyth County Chamber of Commerce, South Forsyth Rotary, MentorMe North Georgia, Bald Ridge Lodge, Jesse's House, Junior Achievement of Northeast Georgia, UGA Alumni Association, Forsyth County Manufacturing Society, United Way, and many other non-profits. She is a 2013 graduate of Leadership Georgia and recently received awards from Georgia Health Science Technology Educators Association, Georgia Future Business Leaders of America, Georgia Technology Student Association, and Georgia Council for Career and Technical Education Administrators as Administrator of the Year. She was also given the Lee Arendale Award for Vocational Service by South Forsyth Rotary and the Liberty Bell Award from the Forsyth County Judicial Bar Association.

Valery and her husband Josh reside in Cumming with their two daughters.
