September is Basic Education and Literacy on the Rotary calendar! Last year we heard from Literacy Forsyth, and this year we'll hear from the Forsyth County Public Library (FCPL) and have a chance to see and tour the Bookmobile that was launched in December 2020. In addition to our own Anna Lyle, the Director of FCPL, we'll be joined by Sarah Reynolds and Leslie Marinelli.

Sarah Reynolds is a native Georgian, born and raised in Cobb County. She has worked in public libraries for almost twenty years, joining FCPL in 2013 as the Information Services Supervisor at the new (in 2013) Post Road Library. In her current position as Outreach Manager, Sarah was involved in the Bookmobile project from the beginning and is very proud of her Big Blue Baby. Sarah promotes the library's mission and vision out in the community with bookmobile services, visits to senior living communities, participation in community events, and any other opportunity to share her passion for literacy and learning that comes her way.

Leslie Marinelli is the Communications Manager for FCPL, where she was a children's librarian for four years. Prior to her work at the library she was a professional humor writer, editor, and public speaker. Leslie has been featured in The Huffington Post, CNN's Headline News, Parenting Magazine, and Northside Woman. She has also performed original comedy acts in two national shows, "Listen to Your Mother," and "That's What She Said" (twice). Originally from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Leslie has lived in Forsyth County for 18 years, is a mother of three, and serves on the committee of Boy Scout Troop 457. In her spare time Leslie can be seen chasing her rescue puppy, Birdie, and shouting "DROP IT."
