TODAY'S SPEAKER

Joe Cook
 Georgia River Network Guidebooks

Joe Cook grew up in Atlanta rafting the Chattahoochee River, as was popular in the late 1970s and early 1980s. It's where he first fell in love with rivers. As an adult, he has traveled thousands of miles on Georgia rivers including "source to mouth" journeys on the Chattahoochee and Apalachicola rivers and the Etowah River. From 2004 to 2018, he worked in various positions with the Coosa River Basin Initiative in Rome including executive director and advocacy and communication coordinator. In 2005, he began working with Georgia River Network to create Paddle Georgia, an annual week-long canoe/kayak adventure that takes place on a different Georgia river each year. While serving as Paddle Georgia coordinator since 2005, he also has authored Georgia River Network's River User's Guide book series, including guides to the Etowah, Chattahoochee, Flint, Broad, Oconee and Ocmulgee rivers. He is currently at work on the Altamaha River User's Guide. A nature/landscape photographer, his writing and photographs have been published in numerous national and regional magazines and is featured in three other books, Wildflowers of the Appalachian Trail, Wildflowers of the Blue Ridge and Smoky Mountains and River Song-A Journey Down the Chattahoochee and Apalachicola Rivers. He is a 1988 graduate of Berry College and lives in Rome.

Volunteers are needed
 to help set up tables
 and chairs before our Monday meetings. If you can help, please
 see Glenn Smith.
