Joe Brannen is the president and chief executive officer of the Georgia Bankers Association, a position he has held for 40 years. Since its founding in 1892, the Georgia Bankers Association has been the statewide organization representing Georgia's banks and savings institutions.

Prior to joining the association, Joe spent eight years on the staff of former U.S. Senator Sam Nunn. Active in many state, regional and national organizations, Joe is on the board of directors of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce and the American Bankers Association's Alliance of State Associations, which he previously chaired.

Joe is a past president of the Georgia Bar Foundation and is a former chair of the board of the Graduate School of Banking at Louisiana State University. He is a past participant in Leadership Georgia, a member of the Gridiron Secret Society, and has been a member of the Committee of 100 of Emory University's Candler School of Theology.
