

Rotary -Club Meeting Recap 11/9/2021

The house was full this week! We had the pleasure of meeting the Students of the Quarter from Citrus High School and Inverness Middle School. With 12 students, faculty and family along with additional Club guests and a new inductee, our meeting was filled with positivity and celebration.

Meet the Students:

CHS

Lauren Connor-senior class president, NHS, Interact, a founder of “Helping Hands”, a club that helps out with students and activities at the school

Connor Kuziemko- interested in pursuing internet security, he was the Microsoft Champ this year

Jillian Wyman-cheerleader, works with The Blessings and Salvation Army. Wants to pursue a degree in Physical Therapy.

Sterling Peters-NHS, bass singer in both high school and church chorus, and wants to go into aerospace engineering

Emily Shelton-focused in the fine arts, she loves music and chorus, but also is working on her private pilot’s license. She volunteers with the Salvation Army

Caleb Swinton- has completed 7 AP classes, is on the academic team, NHS, and volunteers with the Boys and Girls Club. He enjoys writing and science at will pursue a degree in Biology at UF.

IMS

Alexis Carter-helps others that are having trouble with middle school, dance is her passion and she dreams of attending FSU

Evan Wilson-helps out at school with their technology problems, wants to work in technology one day or at NASA and spends a lot of time involved with electronics

Sophie Mills-demonstrates strong leadership and enjoys writing and history

Ryan Lin-works hard every day to make things better, lived part of his life in China. He will attend the IB school and wants to get a degree in Criminal Defense Law from UF

Alli May-a Lightening Leader, she likes science and AVID, plays volleyball and basketball, and wants to be a forensic detective

Zeke Lambright-a huge New Orleans Saints fan, born in a hurricane in the N.O. area, and is a boy scout with John Murphy’s troop.

What an amazing bunch of young folks with a lot to offer us in the future. Hat’s Off!

In Other News

*Doug Alexander joined us again...This time to ask our help with his Church Without Walls Socks for Cypress Creek initiative. Having the opportunity to own more than one pair of socks while in this correctional facility is a gift in itself. This Christmas, Pastor Doug would like to give them socks, underwear and tank top undershirts. He is asking us to bring in these items to give to these youths. Bring to club or drop off at Rob Tessmer’s business office.

*Family Resource Center- Trish has children for you to select to give much needed Christmas gifts to. Contact her at trisht@tampabay.rr.com if you would like to participate.

*Fifth Tuesday- we will be going to the Emergency Operations Center for lunch and a demonstration of their K9 trackers.

*Congratulations to Lou Ellen Hartley, our newest member. She was inducted and welcomed to our club.

*Guests: Brian Fitzpatrick, Mark Novak, and Jules Paiva. Hope to see them again and again.

50/50- $35 went to one of the students...Sterling Peters!!!!

H/S - $148

Until next time.....keep the faith!