Welcome to the Rotary Club of New Port Richey

2021
Happy New Year

January 6, 2021

Today we welcome our very own Carol McCormick speaking about Dacdb.

Last Meeting (three weeks ago!)

Our speaker three weeks ago was our very own John Stewart speaking about former member and judge, Lowell Bray. John and Lowell were as close as brothers. They bought some land together on Manor Beach Road in New Port Richey and each built a house on it. They still live there today, over 45 years later.

The Wild Game Dinner's first year was on Lowell's property. Frank Parker brought a salad from Pappas', but forgot the serving utensils. They forgot a lot of things.

Lowell was our club president in 1983-84 and until this past year was a member of our club. During Lowell's year as President, they put benches along the river.

Lowell is still hanging around and making knives. John and Lowell see each other occasionally when they get their mail. We would like to thank John for an interesting program. A donation will be made in his name to our local Pack-a-Sack program.

Good Bye 2020 by Patti Templeton

As the end of the year approaches, we often spend time looking back to remember all that happened in the past year. We have all experienced loss, changes like never before and joy in different ways. Hopefully as you look back over the year of 2020, you will be able to focus on the good of the year instead of all the bad that has happened. As a cancer survivor, I have learned to not take any day for granted and to live life to the fullest no matter what. I choose to find the good in every situation.

As we approach a new year, my prayer for each of you is that God will bless you and your family with good health, happiness and that you will be able to experience joy in the coming year.

I hope you were able to celebrate Christmas with your loved ones and I wish you all a very Happy New Year. We look forward to seeing everyone again in 2021.

Happy 2021 and may blessings come your way.

Get Well Wishes

Sending get well wishes to Bob Carroll who is recovering well from his recent open heart surgery. Bob was hospitalized from December 18 to December 23, 2020, diagnosed with aortic stenosis secondary to a congenital bicuspid valve which required a new heart valve.

Laura and Bob are grateful he's home and getting a little stronger every day. His recovery requires he be very quiet for a while, which means their Christmas and New Year's is just the two of them, quarantined. They ask for your thoughts and prayers as Bob continues to heal.

Please show your concern, at this time, only by sending a card which can be mailed to: Bob Carroll, PO Box 1940, NPR, 34656.

Married Shopping

A married couple had been out shopping for most of the day. Suddenly the wife realised that her husband had "disappeared".

Somewhat irate she called her husband's cell phone and demanded, "Where are you?"

Her husband replied "Darling, do you remember that little jewelry shop where you saw that beautiful diamond necklace and totally fell in love with it but I didn't have the money at that time and I said 'Darling it'll be yours one day.'"

Tears coming to her eyes, the wife tremulously whispered, "Yes, I do remember that my love."

"Well I'm in the bar next to that shop," the husband said.

Stand By Your Man

Close to midnight on New Year's Eve, Marilyn stood up in the local pub and said that it was time to get ready. At the stroke of midnight, she wanted every husband to be standing next to the one person who made his life worth living.

Well, it was kind of embarrassing. As the clock struck—the bartender was almost crushed to death.

Party Guest

Trevor's New Year's Eve party was an annual occurrence with numerous guests arriving. During the evening, a man knocked on the door, was greeted heartily although no one knew who he was, and was led to where the drinks were, in the kitchen. He sat there happily, chatting away, for a couple of hours before a strange light dawned on his face.

"You know," he confided to Trevor, "I wasn't even invited to this party. I just came over to tell you that some of your guests' cars are blocking my drive." He continued, "My wife's been sitting out in the car waiting for me to get them moved, so that we can go out to our own party."

The Best Game Ever!

As in many homes on New Year's Day, Janet and Nigel, a happily married couple, faced the annual conflict of which was more important: the football game on television between two great teams and vicious rivals, or the lunch itself.

Hoping to keep the peace Nigel ate lunch with the rest of the family, and even lingered for some pleasant after-lunch chat before retiring to the family room to turn on the television. Some minutes later, Janet looked in to see how he was and graciously even bought a cold beer for Nigel. She smiled, kissed him on the cheek and asked what the score was. Nigel told her it was half time and that the score was still 0-0.

"See?" Janet said happily, "You didn't miss a thing."

Rotary Santos 2020

Even with the difficulties facing the Rotary Santos this past Christmas, they came through and spread Christmas joy, making a lot of children and families happy. While the Santos were not able to go into the homes and take photos, parents have sent us photos and thanks for making their children's holiday so much brighter.

Some Other Good Things That Happened In 2020

Talia Lakritz, Insider, November 13, 2020

Yes, 2020 was a rough year. But even with all of the bad news, there were still reasons to smile thanks to these acts of kindness...

After the coronavirus pandemic canceled their daughter's bat mitzvah party in March, a family turned the food into meal deliveries for people in quarantine.

Jordana Shmidman's bat mitzvah celebration in New York had to be canceled due to the coronavirus pandemic. The food for the event was already prepared, so the Shmidman family told the caterers to package it up for delivery to people in quarantine. Parent volunteers then coordinated deliveries across the New York metropolitan area for staff members and their families.

Around 150 boxes of food were delivered to quarantined people in Bergen County, the Bronx, Westchester, Manhattan, Queens and Rockland County.

Owners of a Georgia bar took down the dollar bills decorating its walls and ceiling to give to unemployed staffers in April.

The Sand Bar on Tybee Island in Georgia is known as the "dollar-bill bar" because for years customers have been writing notes on singles and stapling them to the walls and ceilings.

Insider's Haven Orecchio-Egresitz reported that the bar's owner, Jennifer Knox, and volunteers spent days painstakingly taking down the bills and picking out the staples so they could donate the money to the bar's out-of-work employees.

The bills added up to $3,714. Knox exchanged them for fresh ones at a bank and gave $600 to each of her four bartenders and two musicians.

"It was so emotional and beautiful," Knox told Insider. "We couldn't hug them, which absolutely sucked, but they were just crying."

An 11-year-old girl and her pony cheered up nursing home residents by visiting them at their windows in May.

Jorja Boller of Beatrice, Nebraska, has been a volunteer at her local nursing home, Good Samaritan Society, for the past five years. When she heard the residents were stuck in isolation due to the coronavirus pandemic, she wanted to do something to brighten their days.

At the care home, Jorja brought Peanut to the window so the residents could see her. Robin Gascon, the director of marketing and resource development at Good Samaritan, said they were "so excited."

"They would see the staff come to the window and they would wave and you could tell right when their eyes saw the pony because they instantly lit up with smiles from ear to ear!" she told Insider's Zoe Ettinger.

A bride and groom couldn't have their dream big wedding due to the coronavirus, so they donated and served all their food to a children's shelter.

Tyler and Melanie Tapajna from Parma, Ohio, had originally planned a celebration with 150 guests to take place in August.

But when they realized that wasn't going to be possible due to the pandemic, they served their wedding food (still in their wedding finery) to Laura's Home, a women and children's shelter run by The City Mission in Cleveland.

"Even though this was different to what we planned, overall we made so many more friends and family in the process," Melanie told Insider's Rachel Hosie. "You normally just invite the people you know. We never thought we would have met so many amazing people planning this. We could not be happier with the outcome. I would do it all over again."
