the years. It was a very emotional call. Jim will keep everyone informed as to what is happening to him.

Don B. ♦ His father in Colorado has passed on. Please accept our deepest condolences.

Janet D. ♦ We send Janet our deepest condolences in the passing of her husband, Bob.

In these very difficult and emotional times, please reach out. Send cards, make phone calls, Zoom, - connect. Isolation is a major cause of depression and we need to reach out to our Rotarian family. Let ♦s lift each other up. During our first meeting in January, we will hold a club memorial service for those who have departed. Come ready to share your warm memories.

Club news: We will return to Zoom only meetings in January 2021 due to the sharply increasing COVID numbers and light attendance at Artichoke.

District News: - No news to report.

Learning Opportunity of the day: Introduced by Bob B.

Carmine Marceno ♦ Lee County Sheriff. Sheriff Marceno shared with us the crime statistics in Lee County ♦ the rate continues to decline. He attributed it his amazing team of highly skilled, knowledgeable and dedicated officers ♦ many of whom were in attendance at our meeting. Sheriff Marceno is a leader who surrounds himself with highly qualified and skilled officers and then gets out of their way. His leadership style is inspiring.

His talk was followed by ♦ The Dog Guy ♦, R. Castellon, who explained how technology, paired with tracking bloodhounds and great police work, are being used in our county.

We are very fortunate to live in a safe environment with such skilled police officers.

Happy Sad Dollars ♦ Kim A Sergeant at Arms (Zoom) and Dixon Blevins (face to face).

Dick - Special collection for Dave Macarthy.

Members still in the running for Monthly Attendance Raffle for December: Drawing will be on January 7, 2021
