Club Awards ❖ Gary Dworkin and Jim Fabry

Rotarian of the Year, Campbell Gault. Campbell supports us in many ways and especially contributing food, supplies and people power for BonitaFest.

Jim presented a plaque with a gavel to Gary for his tireless service in 2019-2020.

Each new Board Member received Open Doors to Opportunities coins and each will receive a pin from Jim.

Installation of 2020-2021 Officers and Directors

District Governor - Darryl Keys Recognized those in our club who have served at the District level: Cindy, Steve, Gary, Tam, and Sonny.

Thank you for your generosity in contributions. Congratulations to Rotarian of the Year, Campbell Gault.

Your leadership works so well together. Gary and Jim have been a great example of your collaboration.

Gary is the first President since 1918 who has led in a pandemic. Your club was one of the first to embrace Zoom. What struck me was that by using Zoom you were able to include people who cannot come to a meeting. Clubs are connecting in new ways. You are embracing that.

New theme is Opening Doors to Opportunities. Our new RI President is challenging us all to seek new opportunities. Rotary opens opportunities: First, as members through leadership and mentorship and more. Second ❖ how we can open opportunities for others. When we give a wheelchair, water, or much needed surgery. Third, as a club to help others. We will need to think of ways to do fundraising in new ways since large gatherings are no longer viable.

Now, thanks to all who served in 2019 - 2020.

President Elect Jim has been nominated to this position because the club has confidence in him.
