Health and Welfare information- Mark T., Marilyn update ♦ the past week was difficult for her with both online and face-to-face. It is very tiring. Dave M. is back with perfect October attendance, and looking good.

Steve A. ♦ Steve A., Cindy C., Steve L., John W., Dee F. and Jim F., were at the RLI District Training last Saturday in Port Charlotte. In talking with Rotarians there (there were about 70 people) and from the clubs, it appears that 2/3 of the clubs are back doing hybrid meetings. CDC guidelines were followed during the training. Social distancing was adhered to. We were all very happy to be back together. So Steve got back in touch with Artichoke. Brian is anxious to have us come back. If we don't have our minimum of 15 he is still guaranteeing our fixed price. We will not know what the menu is going to be. We will be served a plated lunch for those who want it.

We will be starting face-to-face and Zoom meetings on Thursday, November 5. Let Jim know if you are going to attend and if you want lunch or not. If you do not feel comfortable yet, you may still join us via Zoom. We will be adhering to CDC guidelines.

Jim ♦ Dee and I were contemplating doing a party at The Stage. Campbell is re-opening in January. So, we will let you know.

Joanne Z. ♦ Our second RotaKids meeting was Wednesday. The kids recited the RotaKids Pledge and received their t-shirts and RotaKids pins. We had a virtual presentation with Elizabeth Webb, a Certified Child Life Specialist from Golisano Hospital. The children then made craft kits, turkey puppet, for the patients at the hospital. Great report and work on RotaKids, Joanne.

For every $100 donation you will receive the commemorative Polio coin. $2,500 month to date. One week to go. Have you contributed?

Steve A. ♦ Every club has had to cancel their fund raising events. They are struggling how to raise funds. I met with our District Foundation Club, Alfred Current. Our district is among the top 1% in giving and continues to do so.

Glen M. started Chair the Love about 10 years ago to support the wheelchair. The club funnels the funds through the club foundation. Their event will be October 29. Cuisine for the Cause. An award winning chef will do a Zoom presentation on how to cook a gourmet meal. You will know ahead of time and have the ingredients and cook along with him. It will be a virtual meal. This is an innovative idea. Steve is going to do it. If you want to participate here is the link:

Sam B. shared her fund raiser which is a holiday cookbook on PDF format. I am hoping for 150 sales. More to come. We could do a Rotary Club Cookbook.
