A BIG congratulations is in order to the oh so talented Rosemary Takacs for being our Rotarian of the Month for May! Drum roll please....The expired items contest has come to a close. Our winners include: Andy Scott for collectable items, Bill Hill and Chris Bondani for non-edible items, and Lee Hunter for food items. Mark Your Calendars, Ecology Day is coming up on June 13th. Join Glenn Barr and friends for Ecology Day. The fun starts at 7:45am in front of Larry's Giant Sub in front of the entrance to ATP. Thank you to Glenn for coordinating! Speaking of coordinating we are working very hard to get back to Marsh Landing and will hopefully (fingers crossed) be in by the end of June. It will be a Rotary miracle so lets all think positive! We are also excited to have our New Member/Red Badge Mixer June 16th at Beach Diner here in PV. We will begin at 6pm and are thrilled to see everyone-not to worry they have plenty of indoor and out door seating so we can still socially distance. We hope to see you there! Thank you to Bruce Jones and Lee Lockett for your dedication and diligence to the clubs Bylaws. We know that is a huge undertaking. Another huge undertaking- is talking politics in today's political climate. One of my previous professors and club member, Dr. Matt Corrigan shared his insights and facts last week regarding the landscape for the 2020 election.

June 11th Program:

Andrew Nagorski is an award-winning journalist and author who spent more than three decades as a foreign correspondent and editor for Newsweek and will discuss his latest book. From 2008 to April 2014, he was vice president and director of public policy for the EastWest Institute, an international affairs think tank. Nagorski is now based in St. Augustine, Florida but continues to travel extensively, writing for numerous publications. Both of his most recent books -- Hitlerland: American Eyewitnesses to the Nazi Rise to Power (Simon & Schuster, 2012) and The Nazi Hunters (Simon & Schuster, 2016) -- have received rave reviews. His latest book 1941: The Year Germany Lost the War was published in June 2019. From January 2000 to July 2008, Nagorski served as senior editor for Newsweek International, handling the editorial cooperation between the parent magazine and its expanding network of foreign language editions and other joint venture partners. The new magazines that were launched during his tenure were Newsweek Arabic in 2000; Newsweek Polska, which has become Poland's leading newsmagazine since it was launched in 2001; Newsweek Russia in 2004; and Newsweek Argentina in 2006. Nagorski also continued to write reviews and commentaries for Newsweek International. He has been honored three times by the Overseas Press Club for his reporting.
