We had a packed meeting last week if you missed us! We recognized each member of TBRCITW who served our country in honor of Veterans Day (tomorrow). A military brat myself and now married to a veteran I have special place in my heart for those that have served and sacrificed. THANK YOU! Michele McManamon also shared with us her upcoming event for ONU. More details in the email sent with the Rote attached. Guest speaker was Maj. General James O. Eifert gave a phenomenal presentation sharing the functions of our Coast Guard and our states emergency preparedness. Don't forget we have TWO events this Saturday: first up is Ecology Day at 7:45 in front of Larry's Giant Subs. The second is of course 'Cocktails and Croquet'. A note from Connie Green: Twenty six players ( members and spouses, partners or singles) have signed on for Cocktails and Croquet, November 14th, 2:30. Location is the PV Croquet Club at the foot of Mosquito Control Road ( off 3rd Street AIA) in Ponte Vedra. There will be PVCC members available to help the games move along, and John Curington will introduce all to the game in remarks before play. White/cream colored attire is required. Appetizers and soft drinks and water will be provided; players are welcome to bring their preferred libations.

November 12th:

John Rutherford (FL-04) is serving his second term in the U.S. House of Representatives. He sits on the House Appropriations Committee where he serves on three subcommittees: Homeland Security, Military Construction and Veterans Affairs, and Transportation and Housing and Urban Development. John has lived in Jacksonville, Florida since 1958, and attended Florida Junior College and Florida State University where he studied Criminology. He is a graduate of the FBI National Academy, 171st Session and the National Executive Institute. He began his career in law enforcement in 1974 as a patrolman in the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office, working his way up through the JSO where he eventually served as Director. In 2003, 2007, and 2011, John was elected Sheriff of Duval County. For three terms and twelve years, John ran a 3,200 employee office, and due to his effective leadership, homicide and overall violent crime in Jacksonville dropped to a 40-year low. Using a model of intelligence-led and community-based policing, John and his team of law enforcement professionals dramatically improved neighborhoods and prevented crime throughout the community. He also made the mental health component of the criminal justice system a priority, reducing the recidivism rates of the mentally ill and facilitating their treatment. John also served as Chair of the Legislative Committee for Florida Sheriff's Association, where he advocated before the legislature for policies that strengthened constitutional rights, supported our law enforcement, and enhanced public safety across the state. John has been happily married to his wonderful wife Pat for forty-six years. They enjoy their two children and six grandchildren, and they are also devoted members of Assumption Catholic Church in Jacksonville.
