People of Action...

As part of our community outreach, members of the Rotary Club of Amelia Island Sunrise spent Saturday morning, August 10, helping a recent widow get a house ready to sell. Doug Mackle became aware of her problems through his realty activities and has been working with her to help get her back on her feet. Mark Cutshaw and his daughters, Bruce Heggenstaller, Greg Holding, Doug Mackle, Art Shuster, Pete Stevenson, Jim Weaver, Mickey Ulmer, Bob Eberle and Peter Williams cleared an overgrown lot and yard, pulled weeds, cut grass and trimmed overgrown bushes, greatly improving the appearance of both her home and the home for sale.

Learn Janan Rowland's story by logging into her GoFundme page. Consider to help this lovely lady who has so many medical & financial challenges. Learn more at <https://www.gofundme.com/f/help-janan>

Rotarians Love to Learn

By Caroline Blochlinger on Friday, August 9, 2019

Teaching us about Sea Turtles and the Amelia Island Sea Turtle Watch, Inc. (AISTW) is exactly what Mary Duffy, a retired educator, did. We learned that Sea turtle nesting season officially begins on May 1st. The Amelia Island Sea Turtle Watch beach patrol began operating May 1 and will operate through August 31.
