"A Porpoise for Painting - Empty Bowls"

Barnabas and the 6th annual Empty Bowls Luncheon on November 8, 2019.

Several Sunrisers joined the Satellite club last week for bowl painting for Barnabas.

Regan Westra's working on her special creation. Other Sunrise members attending the bowl painting party included Brian Coyne, Ann Apt, Brian Coyne, Dan and Regan Westra. Satellite members participating included Brian Henning, Justin Taylor, Jackson Selvedge, Vicky and Larrie Beaudry. Barnabas CEO Wanda Lanier also stopped by to share words of support and thanks.

The 2019 Empty Bowl Luncheon will take place at First Baptist Church from noon to 1 pm.

Remember Last Weeks Meeting?

The following is what you missed if you were not here last week...

Have you been at the Museum lately?

By Caroline Blochlinger on Friday, October 11, 2019

Adam M. Levine Ph.D - photo Bob Eberle

About a year ago the Cummer Museum hired a new CEO. In January 2019, Adam M. Levine Ph.D. became the new leader of the Cummer Museum of Art. He left the Toledo Museum of Art where he served as the deputy director and curator for ancient art. The Cummer Museum actively pursued him and quoting him, ◆When I visited this museum, I was overwhelmed by its potential. The seasoned staff, the magnificent gardens, the strong collection, and the supportive board all suggested the museum could become a truly special institution.◆ At an interview with WJCT he said "The only way you can be sustainable is to be continuously relevant. What I hope to do with my colleagues at the museum, on the board and with all of Northeast Florida is to create the most relevant institute possible to their daily lives. And I'm really excited for the opportunity and just can't thank the search committee enough for their trust in my ability to do so." Read More

Our Club Made A Big Impact

By Caroline Blochlinger on Friday, September 27, 2019

Amelia Island Rotary Club President Jody Henson, Isea, Douglas, Mary, Cameron and Rainey Crawford

This is not the first time we had the honor to welcome the team from Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Florida. Sara Alford, the Chief Executive Officer of the organization started the presentation with a small overview of what they were doing. Their mission is to create and support one-to-one mentoring relationships that ignite the power and promise of youth. The impact of mentoring is significant. It facilitates continued academic engagement and achievement, increases exposure opportunity and vision. In general, it improves employability and develops non-cognitive skills. Read More
