Remember Last Weeks Meeting?

The following is what you missed if you were not here last week...

Welcome to a New Member

By Caroline Blochlinger on Friday, December 6, 2019

Andrew Schmidt has been visiting our Club before and after checking out the other clubs he decided to become a member of our group. He really appreciated our spirit. He also prefers to be a member of our Club since he will be living on the island and likes the Friday morning meeting.

Andrew, sponsored by Rotarian Dotti Fortwengler, recently joined the staff at the Boys and Girls Clubs of Nassau County, as senior director of development and marketing. He has over 16 years of experience in securing philanthropic support for and leading public relations and marketing communications at various nonprofit organizations, including most recently as Director of Communications for Development and Alumni Affairs at Georgia State University in Atlanta.

Andrew is a native of Amelia Island and in his words, ♦♦m thrilled to be living in Fernandina Beach again and excited to immerse myself in the community♦♦.

Welcome Andrew, we are all looking forward to doing great things together.

This is not the first time that Edgar Johnson from Guardian Ad Litem (GAL) visited our club. As many might recall he was here in February where he introduced his organization. \(read more♦♦\)

Ed♦♦s mission is to protect and to be a voice for neglected and abused children. Guardian Ad Litem is a volunteer powered network of committed people who believe society has a fundamental obligation to children that have been placed in harm♦♦s way because of problems in the home. Our club was so impressed with their dedication and their services that we decided to make GAL the beneficiary of the 3rd Quarter♦♦s Morning Money. At this meeting we were honored to present the organization with a check of $1000 which will be used to help children in need.
