Nina Yon
President / CEO
The Sharing Center

Nina Yon is the President & CEO of The Sharing Center, a registered 501(c)3 located in Longwood. The Sharing Center has served Seminole County for 35 years, helping those less fortunate to meet their basic needs; while also fighting hunger and homelessness in the community.

With a career that spans three decades, Nina has held a variety of leadership roles; including sales and marketing, fundraising, and strategic planning. Prior to assuming the leadership role with The Sharing Center, Nina worked with United Against Poverty as their Director of Development. She also held the position of Director of Business Development at AdventHealth's Nicholson Center for Surgical Advancement and worked with the Central Florida Foundation as well as the Central Florida Commission on Homelessness.

Nina has served on the boards of Asian American Chamber of Commerce, Orlando Economic Development Commission, Harbor House and Shepherd's Hope. She is currently serving as a board member of J4, a Christian women leadership organization and the Maitland Rotary Club.

Nina's shift into the nonprofit sector came following a "calling" as a United Methodist Volunteer, serving the people of Guatemala for two and a half years. Her mission work has instilled a desire to serve those who are the most vulnerable among us.

Nina has a BA degree specializing in hospitality management from UCF as well as a Master's in Nonprofit Management.

Nina has received numerous awards. Most recently, she was awarded the Golden Hands honor by the Asian American Chamber of Commerce in 2019 for her community service. She was awarded the Martin Luther King Jr. Good Citizenship Award by the City of Longwood in 2020, and UCF's Outstanding Alumni Award for the Masters of Nonprofit Management Program from the College of Public Administration. Nina has been a Rotarian for over thirteen years in Panajachel and Antigua Guatemala, Rotary Club of Dr. Phillips, and currently serves as the Speaker Chair for the Maitland Rotary Club.
