Club of Orange County East-Winter Park

Consolidated Bulletin

These are the Rotarians you want to sit with at the same Table and share some luck!

September 24th - Marie Smith (Breaking John Ingram and Gene Colley's streaks)

October 1 - Lee Wright (The lucky Banker or is it Golfer?)

October 8 - John Ingram (The "Vegas Kid" of 50/50)

October 15 - Linda Scott (Came in for the win!)

We have had a run of very good speakers but I give the "Emmy" to our own Tom Lawton whose talk based on a book about Jefferson was inspirational!

Bill Cowels was a close second with his update on Orange County Election processes and current challenges and successes.

Last weeks presentation with Dick Batchelor and Tico Perez - became more partisan and lively than expected but generated a lot of interest from the floor.

The Tip Off is actually going pretty well - 23% of our members (as of last meeting) had contributed to the Tip Off. As I said in the meeting, it is important that we all participate to demonstrate our commitment to our major donor.

Below is a list of the organizations benefiting from last years Tip Off in addition to the 3 scholarships we awarded:

American Legion Auxillary

Children's Home Society of FL

Easter Seals

Elevate Orlando

A Gift for Teaching

Harbor House

Impower

Job Partnership of FL

Male Wellness Collective

MicheLee Puppets

Neighbors Network

Quest, Inc/Life Concepts

Southeastern Guide Dogs

Welbourne Day Nursery

Winter Park Day Nursery

Our challenge is to do the best we can with our Tip Off Challenge this year. Remember that we were able to maintain our momentum after the economic challenges after 2008. We can do it again!
