

“ROTARY CONNECTS THE WORLD”

Spoke 'n Wheel

The Weekly Broadsheet of the Winter Park Rotary Club

“Will Zoom be our Doom?”

by President Bryan Thomas

The meeting of September 28, 2020 commenced at the very instant the man for whom the bell tolls, Past President and current Secretary Jeffrey wacked the sacred gong.

Jim Hardy invoked with sufficient style to suggest he attended seminary rather than dental school.

An attempt to render the pledge via YouTube demonstration of American Sign Language resulted in gibberish although our spirits collectively refreshed commitment to those sentiments.

Music: YouTubing the “Star Spangled Banner”. My take is that selection should never be rendered by amateurs unless skilled enough to compete on

Diagnosis & Treatment for TMJ

By Pete Lemieux

Straight to our speaker, fellow club member Pete LeMieux, on the topic “Never TMI about TMJ”. Select a dentist who understands a dysfunction in the temporomandibular joint (the “TMJ” in the title) can lead all manner of health issues: pain, headaches, bad alignment of your ivories and even delinquent dues. Thanks for the heads up on this issue.

MEMBER ANNIVERSARIES:

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUED ROTARY SERVICE!

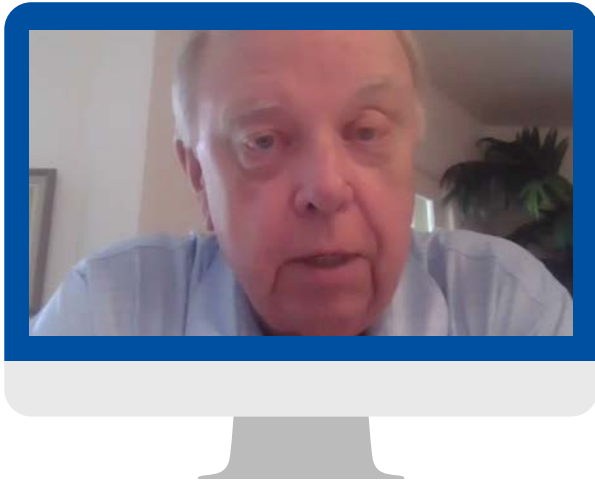

DAVID JOHNSTON: 15 YEARS.

JOHN BEHRLE: 19 YEARS

HOLLY POHLIG: 10 YEARS

MIKE BALDWIN: 13 YEARS

Almost to Blue Badge!

Newbie Clyde King, streaking to completion of qualification for a blue badge, gave his classification speech. He claimed his wife merited a proposal for her name so they could waltz through life as "Bonnie and Clyde". If you know Bonnie, Clyde would surely have seen the wisdom of a proposal even had her name been "Griselda".

Educated at West Georgia Vocational and Normal College - the "Harvard of the South" - he has stumbled and staggered his way through a series of artistic and financial successes to make his way in the world.

He retired from his last gig as manager of mergers and acquisition for Massey Services, the largest privately owned pest control company in the known universe. Well said and welcome.

Clyde already took a couple of turns packing at Killarney although one shift ended early because of a paper cut that left him shuffling groceries with just the one good hand.

RAFFLE: FINALLY THE WELL WILL CONTAIN SUFFICIENT COIN OF THE REALM FOR A DRAWING NEXT WEEK. KICK IN BEFORE THEN TO SUPPORT KILLARNEY FOOD PANTRY AND HAVE A CHANCE AT TURNING AROUND YOUR PERSONAL FINANCES TO THE TUNE OF $100. YOU MUST BE PRESENT TO WIN.

PDG JoAnn Beck passed on the 60 second commercial but reserved the right to give her one minute's worth next meeting. Karen Gourlay was selected by Justin's AI device to stand and deliver when next we pitch a virtual assembly, presumably Monday October 5 assuming the Republic withstands the shocks of last week's presidential debates.

Hope you will join our fellowship at noon next Monday. The Zoom counter needs to bump up to the 60's and 70's.

MEETING LOCATION:

Online via Zoom

October 5: Fred Stokes Foods – Fred Stokes: Super Bowl Champion, Speaker, Author, Entrepreneur

October 12th: City of Orlando – Douglas Metzger

October 19th: Board Meeting

DUKE MARSH: ROTARIAN OF THE WEEK

Rotarian of the Week is Duke Marsh, a man more closely associated with drawing blood than your neighborhood vampire.

Duke took the lead in initiating discussion with OneBlood to make donations to Rotary instead of providing donors with a T-shirt and a gift card.

The district would require a per capita donation participation as a criterion to qualifying individual clubs for “best of the bunch” recognition.

It is easier to keep on doing the same old stuff like the Big Red Bus but Duke took the next step with an eye to making the new arrangement “beneficial to all concerned”.

EMAIL IS GOOD FOR YOU!

Bitch and moan department: less than half the membership so much as opens the newsletter. “Better to light a candle than curse the darkness”.

Sec. Jeffrey labors to provide a comprehensive publication containing everything you need to know during Covid Days. It takes but a minute to stay current and know that our club soldiers on during these perilous times.

Recruit, Recruit, Recruit

No guests to introduce!!! You are on the membership committee and need to double down on recruiting efforts. If UCF football put together a team based on such indifferent efforts, it would be 0-11 year after year instead of National Champions a few years ago and perennial participant in major bowl games. Let’s be champions of our league.

Theme for the coming weeks: Team Jerseys

Whether you pound the table in thrill of victory or whimper with the agony of defeat, let us know who controls your heart by what you wear to support squads engaged in athletic or other competition. Knights, Gators, 'Noles, Bulldogs, Buccaneers, Purple Cows (the mascot of Williams College), Cavaliers or Blue Devils.

Theme Winners: Bows

Ali DeMaria parlayed access to all manner of craft supplies at the Day Nursery to a big win with a big bow earning her a complementary pluck in the Raffle. Thanks for participation by Tom, Rosemary, Jeffrey, Anne, Kim, Sarah, Justin and others too numerous to mention by name.
