CITY NEWS:

City Council scheduled a meeting for Wednesday July 29 to further consider a pending lawsuit by the Alger family for 192 acres in the air base potential accident zone. Damages could cost the City over $13 million. Council must decide whether to offer a settlement.

Today's Speaker/Program

Al Garcia, President of the Homestead Speedway spoke to the Club. He talked about the current state of the business. Currently, the track is at 40% of usual revenues. Al said they are planning and preparing for returning to normal. Phil spoke for the Rotary Club in thanking Al for the Speedway's many community services.
