CITY NEWS:

Rotarian & Homestead Mayor Steve Losner said the City received five proposals for the old City Hall site when they issued a notice of development of public property. Most of the mixed use proposals are vanilla and boring, but it will be interesting to see if City Council has a vision for this premier property.

City Council meeting tonight (Wednesday July 21) at 6 pm to finish charter review issue discussion and set the operating millage rate for 2022, among other issues.

Presentations

PRESENTATIONS:

President Roxanne Jeghers formally welcomed the new District Governor and received Rotary International's banner for 2021-2022.

Today's Speaker/Program

Rotary District 6990 Governor for 2021-2022, Joe Schumacker, shared his vision for Rotary engagement and mentioned program changes designed to help resonate the Rotary message. Joe is from Davie where he owns and manages bowling alleys and is also a very inspirational speaker. "The District exists to support the Clubs!" Watch for a new awards list August 1 that sets new tactical and strategic goals for Club awards. His mission is also leadership development and training, youth engagement, and improved Rotary training. "People stay in Rotary based on the value they expect to receive from Rotary and the Club creates that value." Welcome Joe!
