Today's guest speakers Nadia Porter and Liz Steele were introduced by Rotarian Dale Machesic. They gave a very interesting and detailed presentation on human trafficking. They also talked on several organizations involved with this including the anti-predator project, ground secure as well the others related to the upcoming Super Bowl.

They relate that many of the victims are young as 12 years old. Pimps can make $32,000 a week. Human trafficking involves labor, sexual slavery as well as sexual exploitation. Florida ranks number three in the country behind Texas and California.

Also highlighted were number of local incidents here in Homestead Florida city. They described one of the local motels as a hotbed of activity. A number of the women become addicted to drugs. Also highlighted was that Miami-Dade County is the number one location for pornography. They talked about their programs and training to help them in their cause. Read More

Nadia Port (L) and Lizz Steele (R) were presented with our Certificate of Appreciation and our 4-Way Test Medallions by President Jeff.
