Club looking at specs for new stove to buy for the Soup Kitchen

Doc Glosser said Club is thinking about a "cocktail" satellite club on the east side of town. Suggestion was to hold one evening meeting a month to assess interest in a new Rotary time.

Upcoming Club Programs and Events: See Sidebar to the left. Contact Rotarian Mike Hart concerning programming info and issues.

Today's Speaker/Program

Rotary Area Governor Dennis Caltigarone spoke about his duties as assistant Governor for five clubs: Homestead, Key Largo, Upper Keys, Marathon and the new "Sunset Club" - as a spin-off of the Key Largo Club. Largo is a breakfast club so the Sunset Club meets at 6 pm for drinks, a light supper and their meeting. The first meeting had 47 attendees! Charter installation for the new club is August 10. Asked about service projects: Dennis mentioned Largo Club's road clean-ups four times a year, assistance to the local soup kitchen & food pantry, adoption of a local convalescent center/nursing home where monthly program events cheers everyone (including puppies and beachballs) plus sponsorship of the Joy Center, another senior group home with an active garden.

Presentations

Club discussed the pros and cons of holding a prime rib dinner in the early fall (November) on a Friday night and selling tickets for 400 people to raise money. Discussion of type of event, boat raffle, restaurant drawing, and honoring community leaders. Discussion of serving costs too.

Guest of President Phil, Alexandria Borges spoke about CareerSource of South Florida, a job center for use by both employers and those seeking employment. The Center assists in job searches and employer recruitment events. It provides career counseling and job market information. Contact careersourcesfl.com or (305) 470-5627 for more information.
