By Jeffery Andrew Trimbur on Wednesday, May 5, 2021

Ron Peterson, Jr is the author of two books that have been on the national "true crime" best seller list. His first book, "Under The Trestle," was published in 2019 and is currently in development as a documentary film with Mactavish Pictures. His second book, "Chasing The Squirrel," was published in 2020 and the film rights were recently acquired by Los Angeles-based Urban Legends Film Company, for development as a television series on a streaming service. Ron is a Peninsula native who now lives in Smithfield. He was a journalism major at Radford University, sports editor of the student newspaper, and a member of Radford's first NCAA baseball team back in 1985. He has spent most of his career in advertising, with the Virginian Pilot and Cox Media. He and his wife Kathy have two kids, Brooks, a William & Mary graduate, and Trudy, a sophomore at James Madison University.
