Speaker - Lynn Clements - Slover Library

By Jeffery Andrew Trimbur on Tuesday, July 21, 2020

Lynn was named Executive Director of the Slover Library in Downtown Norfolk in August 2017 after a 32-year career at the Virginia Aquarium where she was an experienced Department Director and CEO with a demonstrated history of working in municipal government and the aquarium and zoo profession. She is a strong business development professional, skilled in nonprofit organizational development, coaching, event management, and team building. Originally hired at the Virginia Marine Science Museum in 1985, she worked her way up the ranks, serving as the Director of Education, Marketing, Operations, Development and Deputy Director. In 2002, she was named Director of the Virginia Aquarium & Marine Science Center and the Executive Director of the Aquarium's non-profit foundation. She was also the Director of the City of Virginia Beach Department of Aquarium & Museums where she operated three historic house museums and an African American Museum. Previously she was a public school science educator and science department chair. Her 2009 Owls Creek Master Plan laid the groundwork for the projects funded by her successful $25 million capital campaign for the Restless Planet exhibits. As part of a $40 million capital campaign for the Darden Marine Animal Conservation Center, new Marsh exhibits and endowment, Lynn raised $12.7 million in private funds for projects that are slated to open in 2021 before she started at the Slover Library. At Slover Library she has moved the needle on education and literacy, and community engagement through technology and collaboration by increasing funding, collaboration and new offerings such as four Creative Studios, and the Hendrix Business Center slated to open fall 2020.

A graduate of Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia, Lynn earned a Master of Science in Education in 1980 and a Bachelor of Science in Biology in 1976.

Under Lynn's leadership, the Aquarium was recognized as the Philanthropic Organization of the Year, and she was recognized as Outstanding Business Woman of the Year, served on the national Association of Zoos & Aquariums board, ODU's Science Advisory Board and as a trustee of Tidewater Community College and Virginia Wesleyan University. She is currently one of 50 CEOs in the 2017 National Arts Strategies' Chief Executive Program Community & Culture sponsored by Harvard and the University of Michigan's schools of business and the Kresge Foundation.
