SCNN's Mission:

To build and strengthen international cooperation, understanding and development between the citizens of the City of Newport News and those of the world.

SCNN's Vision

Through cultural, educational, and economic exchanges, the City of Newport News will be recognized as a global leader. It is our belief that freedom of thought, freedom of expression and freedom of conscience are essential to establishing a quality of life second to none. We contend that the pursuit of continuous learning about people and their communities will facilitate social and economic growth while recognizing the essential need for economic balance. Sister Cities of Newport News, Inc. is empowered to fulfill this vision.

What is a "Sister City"?

◆Sistering◆ is a process that officially links citizens and municipalities with foreign communities through formal "Sister City" agreements. These agreements are fostered by grass-roots, citizen efforts and then ratified by a City Council, or its equivalent. The process of sistering cities was developed so that relationships would be grounded in long-term community partnerships.

The U.S. Sister Cities movement was founded on September 11, 1956 at a White House Conference on Citizen Diplomacy lead by U.S. President Dwight D. Eisenhower. Eisenhower urged attendees to "help build the road to an enduring peace" and "work out not one method but thousands of methods by which people can gradually learn a little bit more of each other". Originally part of People to People and then the National League of Cities (NLC), Sister Cities International (SCI) became a separate, non-profit corporation in 1967. Today, SCI is the nation's foremost citizen diplomacy movement with more than 2,300 communities participating in 130 countries. Sister Cities of Newport News is a dues paying member of SCI.

Citizen Diplomacy is the essence of all sister city programs. Direct "People-to-People" contact is the goal of the program. Through these contacts, we build international understanding and foster community and business relationships. Across the globe, cities are "sistered" or "twinned" with other cities as means of connecting communities and building a sustained peace.
