Hopewell Rotary to welcome Todd

By Carol Dois Woodward on Wednesday, September 15, 2021

Jeff Butler, President of the Hopewell Rotary, is inviting all Prince George Rotarians to the Hopewell meeting next Tuesday, September 21, for its meeting from 11:45 a.m. til 1 p.m. The guest speaker is Todd Parnell, known as "Parney", of the Richmond Flying Squirrels.

Jeff related that Parney has spoken at the club before and delivered a powerful and memorable program.

The Hopewell Rotary meets at the American Legion, Post 146 at 217 E. City Point Rd, in Hopewell. By coming at 11:45 a.m., it helps the Legion take lunch orders and prepare the food. BTW -- wine and beer are available for purchase should you choose. The actual meeting is from 12 noon til 1, but come a little early, order lunch and help support Post 146.

The Ides of September are upon us. What is ahead?

By Carol Dois Woodward on Tuesday, July 20, 2021

Labor Day is over. The first day of public school in the county is well past. The leaves haven't started turning yet, but they will soon. What is up next for Prince George Rotary?

September 21 - Hopewell Rotary will have Todd Parnell of the Richmond Squirrels as the club speaker. The meeting is from 11:45 am til 1 pm at the American Legion. Guests are very welcome, especially visiting Prince George Rotarians. Wine is available, shhhhhh.

September 22 - "Rotary Open Mic" via Zoom. We've had a blast at each one of these. The participants have been varied. The topics have been varied, some personal, some community, some club ideas. Feel free to join in. The Zoom room opens around 7 am. The only requirement is a smile and a bit of laughter, but it is totally open topic.

September 28 - Wait for it. Wait for it. TACO Tuesday, 6 pm. Morelia patio!
