This Week: Hope Davis, Germanna Community College Mentor Program

Hope Davis is a native Virginian from Spotsylvania. During her time at Marymount University, she studied English while performing with the university's theater group and working with the Peer Mentoring Program. As a Peer Mentor, she was able to see how mentoring and education go hand-in-hand. During her year as a VISTA, she will be serving in her hometown at Germanna Community College, where she hopes to build a mentoring program that helps students realize their potential and allows mentors to feel supported by the program and by each other. In her spare time, Hope enjoys reading, writing, and yoga, and one day hopes to work in either theater or publishing.

Mark Your Calendars

At last week's meeting Tom Carlson from the Rappahannock/Fredericksburg Rotary visited and talked about their club's two major events in April: on April 5 there is the "Trip of Your Dreams" and the "Music Blast" on April 27 <https://www.fxbqmusicblast.com/sponsorship>
