Zachary Daniel is the Program Manager for Brain Injury Services Fredericksburg Office (BIS), where he runs a community reintegration program designed to provide volunteer, learning, and social opportunities for local survivors of brain injury.

Zach came to BIS through a college psychology internship and continued as an employee after working with Mary Washington Hospital's behavioral health department. Zach is involved with the Fredericksburg Chamber of Commerce through the CNEW group, and The Fredericksburg Leadership program to further support the needs of community survivors of brain injury.

Zach has a B.S. in Psychology and Religion from the University of Mary Washington. Zach is a Certified Brain Injury Specialist (CBIS), Leadership Fredericksburg '18 alumni, and WRAP certified facilitator. Zach enjoys the new found joy of parenthood with his family and supporting those with disabilities at large.

DICTIONARIES

Club members are asked to report as soon as you have taken the dictionaries to your assigned school.
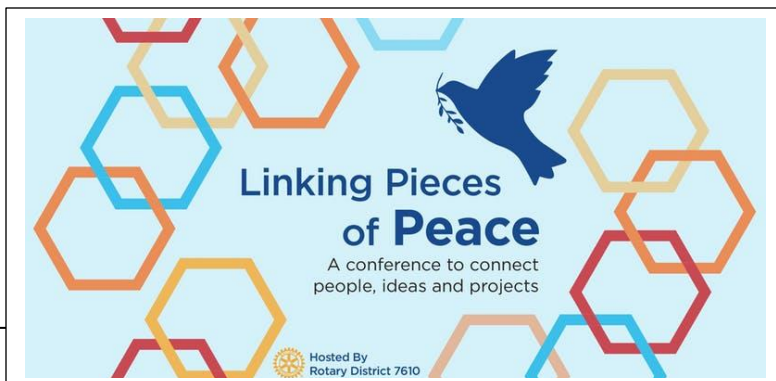

We expect to have all books delivered by the end of October.

At the October 3rd club assembly President Trevor inducted Anthony Valentino, our newest member into the club.

Anthony is a realtor here is Stafford with Berkshire Hathaway Home Services, Simpson Realtors and is a local born and raised in Stafford County.

President Trevor gave the club the results of the club survey. The response rate was excellent. The board and all club members will have much to think about in making decisions about whether or not to make changes in meeting locations, club projects and goals.

Every person is a piece of the puzzle when it comes to peacebuilding, and peacebuilding efforts are more effective through the linking of people, ideas and projects. Attendees will come to:

- Understand key frameworks and foundations of peacebuilding
- Engage in dialogue, discussion and hands-on experiences with conflict analysis and peacebuilding tools
- Imagine peace project ideas at the local, national and international level
- Receive materials and links to sites that will help continue the peacebuilding journey after the conference
- Make connections and build relationships
