

Wrap Up: 17 Aug, End Polio with the Washington Nationals

Boy, it was a hot night with two hot teams. There was no quit in either the Nationals, the Brewers, or the Rotarians who came out to “root, root, root for the Nationals” (I’m looking at you Dennis). There was a scoreboard shout-out to our new BXRC president. The game went 13 innings with the Nationals losing 15-14! Steven got to the stadium at 1:30 Saturday afternoon and didn’t get home until it was over at 12:46 AM Sunday morning. Then he went back for Sunday’s game, arriving at 11:00 AM. Crazy or a loyal fan? You decide.

Welcome Kathleen

Kathleen was inducted into BXRC last week. Please welcome Kathleen and assist her on her journey from Red Badge to Blue Badge during her first year!

Mustang Update

This week saw no car-side sales as the Mustang was at Val’s for a new engine and transmission. This was planned as the car had a “loaner” engine all this time! The car returns “home” in time for the events starting the end of Aug.

Last Week’s Meeting Helpers

Max greeted all. Rob led us in the Pledge and sold 50/50 tickets. Don provided the invocation. Joe led us in “God Bless America.” Our 50/50 winner of $23 was Kevin. Set-up / take down done by “the team” including Bill and Ben. Thanks to Dave for counting noses and $$$$. Thanks to Glad for coordinating logistics and to Clyde for picking up the newsletter – including the emergency last-minute dash to FedEx for the real version!

Last Week’s Guests

Alif Brahim joined us again.

Last Week’s Speaker

Our speakers Fabio Villareol and Jennifer Purser, of paralyzed Veterans of America, thanked BXRC for their support of the quad rugby event at The St. James earlier this year. They plan to do another event soon.
