

Today's Speaker: 5 Feb, Mark Little

Mark Little is a Founding Member of the Rotary Club of Norwich St Edmund, England, is a Paul Harris Fellow and was Club President in 1999/2000. He was appointed an Assistant Governor in District 1080 in 2002 and in the same year led a GSE team to the USA. In 2003 he received the "Rotary Service Above Self Award" from the Board of Directors of Rotary International for his humanitarian work abroad. After completing his three year term as an Assistant Governor, he served for another three years as the Chair of his Rotary District's International Service Committee. In 2001 Mark made his first visits to two Child Slave Rehabilitation Centres in India and has been active in his support of anti-slavery organizations ever since, visiting several other rehabilitation centres and safe houses in other countries and initiating many anti-slavery projects abroad. In 2009, he formed an Action Group of Rotarians against Slavery which received approval from the Board of Rotary International as a Rotarian Action Group in January 2013. He was Chairman of the Action Group for 10 years until he stepped down in July 2019. He is still on the Board of the Action Group. Mark Little will speak about Human Trafficking.

Upcoming Speaker: 12 Feb, Gregg McCrary

Gregg McCrary is a former FBI agent, expert witness and consultant, and author. He is an adjunct forensic psychology professor at Marymount University in Arlington. In 2003, he published The Unknown Darkness: Profiling the Predators Among Us, a book detailing those cases which he found most important regarding criminal profiling. During his tenure with the FBI, McCrary was a criminal profiler and threat analyst.

Upcoming Event: Speech Contest

Gloria and Jim spoke to Justice High School Principal Maria Eck about the annual Rotary sponsored speech contest. It will be held late February or early March (specific date TBD). It will be held via Zoom with the Justice High School students. President Bob will lead the group and needs people to volunteer for the following positions: proctor, timekeeper, scorekeeper, and three judges. (POC: Bob)

Calendar Call: 20 Feb, International Presentation

International Director Sarah announced Alif and Jim will be doing a presentation on Malaysia. Date is Saturday, 20 Feb at 1900. Event will be presented via Zoom. Looking forward to hearing about a country many of us may not have visited.

Food Security Community Partnership with Parkwood Apartments

District 7610 awarded BXRC a grant, "Expanding Community Partnerships: Building Food Security as a First Step," to design a sustainable community infrastructure for addressing the challenges of food security in Bailey's Crossroads. Specifically, the $3,000 grant with 10% matching from BXRC will enable us to form a partnership with the leasing office at Parkwood Apartments in order to provide residents of 40 households with groceries, as well as community education on grocery and nutrition. BXRC already has an existing relationship with the families of Parkwood and the organizations which support them through delivery of groceries at Thanksgiving and through support of schools in their neighborhood. Do you want to get involved? We are looking for BXRC members to help by leading "Neighborhood Conversations" on grocery and nutrition or provide technical support for remote community education meetings. Please contact President Bob and/or Service Project Lead Johnetta for more details.

Be Our Guest!

We have some great speakers coming up and there may be friends who would be interested. Do you remember when we would meet at Goodwin House and every so often, we would welcome a guest or two to our breakfast? Just because we are meeting via Zoom doesn't mean we can't invite some guests. How did you become a Rotarian? Probably because someone invited you to a meeting. Why not extend the same invitation you got to someone you know? Every present member knows someone that might be interested. This is a great opportunity to find potential members and Zoom makes it an easy commute.

Editor's Prerogative

This Sunday is the Super Bowl (I will not kowtow to those who refer to it as the "Big Game" because of licensing issues). This year matches the Young Gun from KC vs the Old Veteran from Tampa Bay (via New England). I am very happy that the Tampa Bay Buccaneers are playing in this year's game. I have seen many people jumping on the Tampa Bay bandwagon just because of Tom Brady. I come to the Buccaneers naturally. I have my own jersey with my name and number on it (which I will be wearing on Sunday). When the team joined the league in 1976, I became a fan. Part of the reason for my allegiance was my grandfather who lived in Florida. Growing up in the 1970s in this area, most kids were fans of either the Washington Redskins (which was their name back then) or the Dallas Cowboys. I have never been one to go with the crowd. During those first years, the Buccaneers were BAD. I mean REALLY BAD!!! The Buccaneers were so bad, they lost their first 26 consecutive games before winning their first game late into their second season. When asked about his team's execution in one game, head coach John McKay said, "I'm in favor of it." That's pretty bad. The color scheme of the Bucs was changed in 1997, replacing the orange creamsicle "Bucco Bruce" with a knife held tight in his mouth to "Captain Fear," represented by a skull on a blood red flag. I guess I have to give some time to Kansas City. The Chiefs were one of the best teams in the old AFL. They played in the very first Super Bowl, losing to the Packers. Three years later, they won their first title in 1970. It then took the Chiefs 50 years to appear and win their next title (remember last year?). The arrowhead logo on the Chiefs helmet is iconic. Did you know that Chiefs father was a professional question is: What team debut with? As for the expect Tampa Bay to win with Ducky down in the World Series, perhaps the Gulf Coast.

quarterback Patrick Mahomes's baseball player? Today's trivia did Pat Mahomes make his MLB outcome of the "Big Game," I by 7. Of course, I have my bet Tampa. If the Rays couldn't win the Bucs can bring another title to
