New Members to Celebrate

A Place to Stand

APTS helps students during the school year who experience food insecurity at home. With students distance learning, food pantry distribution has changed. If you'd like to help, please contact katy@aplacetostand.org.

Upcoming Speakers

Sept 14: Aashray Manchanda and Darwin Otchere, student representatives to the City of Fairfax school board

Fairfax Rotary's Educational Foundation in conjunction with the Setty Family Foundation presented a check for $5,000 to Dr. Phyllis Pajardo, City of Fairfax Schools Superintendent and Katy Malesky, A Place To Eat Director toward their incredible mission of making sure all Fairfax City students have the opportunity to have healthy meals! Let's keep the donations coming for their great work.
