What You Missed ...

By Sara Hickey on Wednesday, July 3, 2019

We hope everyone enjoyed his/her Independence Day and stayed safe.

This week, our new President, Keith, discussed his goals and hopes for this year. He wants to "rock the boat," so grab a paddle!

Keith introduced the Rotary Citation goals, and set a bar to achieve at least Silver Presidential Distinction status. The club will receive quarterly updates on our progress towards the goals.

Anyone who would like to present a classification talk to the club, please contact Sara to reserve your date. Also, if you know an interesting speaker you would like to have speak at a meeting, contact Sara. Mark Burchess has volunteered to speak about his classification next week 7/10.

Below is a list of our club's previously sponsored events. We need at least 1 chairperson, if not 2, in order to make each event a success. We need volunteers to notify Keith before the end of July to ensure enough planning time for each event. Please email him separately or notify in person, during a meeting.

- * Soup Cook Off (October)
- * Dictionary Project (November)
- * Oyster Feast (January)
- * RYLA (Feb)
- * Speech Contest (Feb) - Mark Burchess co-chair

* Garden Market (May)

Other ideas were presented for additional/substitute fundraisers. If you have an interest in making one of these events happen, or have another great idea, please contact Keith.

- * Casino Night/ Roaring 20s theme event
- * Poker Run (boat/motorcycle/bicycle)
- * Bicycle Tour
- * Paintball Tournament
- * Crab Feast
- * Bubble soccer

We also celebrated some milestone birthdays:

Peggy Scibinico - 65 Jim Roney - 65 Keith Moore - 40

Congratulations!!
