Setzer says town to look at land use plan

Sunday, October 24, 2021

Justin Setzer, Franklin town planner, was the guest speaker at the Rotary Club of Franklin Daybreak meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 19.

Setzer said the town is in the process of hiring a code enforcement officer. The officer will be a certified law enforcement officer, whose responsibilities will be to enforce the town's codes and ordinances: including zoning regulations, litter, junk areas, and minimum housing codes.

In 2020 the town completed a comprehensive land use planning study and Setzer anticipates that the town will be rezoning some areas. He said the planning board will be making recommendations to changes zones to match how areas are currently being used.

The planning department will also be looking at ways to make the town more walkable.

Service opportunities

The Rotary Club of Franklin Daybreak has a couple of service opportunities:

Kaylee's Closet

Kaylee's Closet is in need of diapers and wipes for the foster children they serve. If you are able to donate, please bring what you can to next week's meeting and we will get it to them.

Nikwasi Initiative

Fellow Rotarian Fred Alexander is on the Nikwasi Initiative board. They are seeking input on the Nikwasi mound in town if you are willing to complete their survey, it is linked below. (Note: You see Nikwasi spelled Noquisiyi because that is closer to the actual Cherokee name. <https://forms.gle/VNB5nS1iwdqeWaTZA> For questions, please contact: elaine@nikwasi-initiative.org
