Spaghetti dinner a success

By Rachel Hoskins on Sunday, November 7, 2021

The Rotary Club of Franklin Daybreak wrapped up their annual spaghetti dinner fundraiser on Monday night, Nov. 1. Funds raised during the event will be used to support Rotary projects in Macon County including the Fill the Bag food drive in conjunction with the 30 Hour Famine in February, a match for a district grant that will be used to rehab the Rotary Park on the Greenway, and a Shoes for Souls project. Want to learn more about Rotary? We meet at the First United Methodist Church fellowship hall on Tuesday morning at 7:30 a.m. in Franklin.
