2020

As you know, the Fall season always brings cooler temperatures and the risk of colds and flu. Well, this year has an extra concern that we all know and have been concerned about since February - Covid19. Many clubs in our district do already perform a coat drive each year, but this year is different and we can all see why we should lend a hand. Join us in making this a district-wide effort.

With schools, senior centers, and other places where people usually find warmth and comfort being less available than normal, we know that people will feel the chill of winter more this year. First Lady Deborah and I are personally worried about our seniors and children as they face the

Fifth Tuesday Social at Wayah

By Angela Dills on Wednesday, October 7, 2020

Here we grow again! Welcome new Rotarians Greg Mullins and David Hood! Induction by PDG Billi Black and hosted by President Fred Jones and Jennifer DeJonge Jones. Thank you for the excellent hospitality and view on such a gorgeous fall day.

Ronnie Beale on the County

By Angela Dills on Wednesday, October 7, 2020

Rotarian Ronnie Beale updated the club about the county. Macon County has seen some record deed requirements over the past several months, demonstrating the flow of new residents into the county. They continue to work on Broadband access. Little T is working hard to put everything together in the Scaly area. He thanked a wide variety of county employees for their hard work during the pandemic highlighting the roles of the sheriff's office, emergency services, the health department, and senior services.

winter season with increased risk of infections and fewer friends and family to check on them. Kids in poverty often receive their only meals and warmth for the day at school and many of these kids will be either out of school or not in school as much. Seniors are in a similar tough scenario.

A coat is one of the most basic commodities that many children and seniors in poverty lack. You can make a difference in their lives. Please join me and my family as we give our communities the gift of warmth and comfort this winter. Contact your club president for more information.
