President's Message

A big time was had by all who attended the summer social at the Scheidemans. Thank you, Marcia and Fred.

This coming Saturday is our service day at the Grist Mill. Start time is 8:30am. If you have an idea for a new service project, reach out to the service committee.

I hope to see everyone this Thursday. Make it a great week!

YIRS,
Ron

This Week's Program - Homelessness and The Salvation Army

Karen Shore is the Resource Development Director for The Salvation Army's North and South Carolina division. She will speak to our Club about the issue of homelessness in Charlotte and North Carolina. She will share what is being done to address the dire circumstances facing many individuals and families.

The Salvation Army is an active member of the Homeless Services Network and a leader in providing families with a successful way out of homelessness.

August 29th Program - A Recap of the SFTL Experience

Seminar for Tomorrow's Leaders (SFTL) is a 4 day/3 night world class leadership experience for high school students sponsored by Rotary District 7680 with curriculum designed and facilitator training provided by a top global leader in executive training.

Two of our very own, Georgia's grandson, Zane Carter, and Ron's son, Ian Wimberly, will speak about their experiences attending SFTL at Wingate University in June. Please join us in welcoming these two rising stars!

Grist Mill Service Day

Calling all able-bodied members! Please join us this Saturday, August 24th, at 8:30am for a service day at the Isaac Alexander Grist Mill site behind Myers Park High School. Wear work clothes, bring gloves, and let's dig in the dirt to spruce up this important historic site!

Cotswold Farmers' Market News

entertainment. Chef Brittany Dubin brought her culinary skills to the Queen City chef demonstration tent and concocted a delightful dish of peach fritters with raspberry basil glaze.

Keep in mind that each week the Cotswold Farmers Market invites non-profit organizations to display at the market free of charge. If you know of a charity you'd like to benefit, please contact Georgia Oakes. This coming Saturday in the non-profit tent will be two organizations -- Rose's Health & Home Program and Trips for Kids.

Also, be sure to pick up your tickets for Feast on the Farm at the market before they sell out!
