Electronic Dues Billing is Now Available

By Emilee J Collins on Friday, January 8, 2021

Be sure to check your email for your most recent Rotary Dues Invoice. Treasurer Susan Miller and Secretary Sharon Lassiter have made it possible for us to pay our invoices by credit card which is sure to be a huge convenience for many of us.

This is a first for our club, so read the email along with the invoice before moving to the electronic portion of the payment as it offers important details and clarifications about the invoices. It may answer some questions you have.

You may continue to pay your invoice by check and send it to the PO Box that is listed on the invoice.

As a reminder, the Community Chest program is available for members who are unable to meet the obligation for this billing cycle due to hardship. Send your request to Sharon Lassiter.

Thank you for paying as soon as possible, contributing extra to the Solidarity Fund if you are able and for also making the Rotary Foundation a priority in your financial giving.

Durham Rotary January 13, 2021 Book Club

By Sharon Kay Lassiter on Monday, November 9, 2020

BOOK CLUB

Many thanks to those who have joined in one or both of our first two Virtual Book Club Meetings! We have had very illuminating and candid discussions thus far and we believe helpful to those of us who have connected over these books as we emotionally and intellectually navigate some of the events happening in our country right now.

Our next Durham Rotary Book Club Meeting will be Wednesday, January 13, 2021, from 7:00pm -- 8:30pm.

We hope you will join us for what we are sure will be a fascinating conversation. Please spread the word to our fellow Rotarians. It would be wonderful to see our ranks grow.

Questions: Please Contact Book Club Host, Kimberly Rehberg, at: kimberly.rehberg@durhamnc.gov or at: 919.354.2716 or at: 919.560.4158, Extension: 13246.

Raised in Durham North Carolina, Sanders attended Southern Durham High School where she graduated as an all around student in the classroom and exceptional athlete. While earning multiple High School All American accolades for track, Sanders attended The University of South Carolina as a full scholarship track athlete. In 2016, Aalayah graduated from The University of South Carolina in 2017 with a Bachelors in Journalism and Mass Communications.

Post graduation, Sanders has worked for Columbia South Carolina's Gospel and Inspirational radio station as the Administrative Assistant, Internship Coordinator, and On-Air Announcer and she has also seen the rank of Operations Manager for highly esteemed Grammy award winning artist. In 2018, Sanders was a part of The Obama Foundation's Community Leadership Corps Inaugural Class. Aalayah became the Co-Founder and Chief Communications Officer of the Sister's in STEM program, an initiative by the Obama Foundation to inspire minority girls to pursue and study STEM related fields. Before joining The Salvation Army of Durham as Communications Director, Aalayah traveled around the U.S. to prepare high school students for college bound standardized testing in areas of English, Math, Science and Reading as an ACT Facilitator and College Prep Coach. Currently, Sanders is pursuing her Masters in Communications at Walden University.
