Christmas Families Update

Stan and I went to Target this past Wednesday and purchased $8,450 in gift cards for the families in need. The cards were delivered to our Christmas Angel, Edna Lancaster.

Edna took the cards to Social Services. Social Services was so very appreciative and they did not want to take the chance that someone could abuse the gift cards. The cards were not given to each individual family but instead the Social Worker met the families at Target on Thursday night and she personally swiped the cards as the families came through - the same way we would swipe our credit cards.

They felt that most would do as they should and purchase Santa Claus but there is always that chance there would be one that will push the system. They are like us and want to make sure the children have a Christmas.

We helped 22 families for a total of 53 children. We would NEVER be able to pull this off without your help.

"Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy" synchronized by Tchaikovsky to a line rider track drawing everything by hand. It took 3 times as much trial and error to make with 3 riders.
