Last Week's Program

Last week's program was titled "Racial Equity Collaborative - Why It Matters", presented via a panel of Mary Thomas, Molly Talbot Metz, Russell Booker, Mitch Kennedy and Troy Hannah. The process of addressing some of the great disparities in our area started in 2015 with the community indicators. The panel discussed how applying Rotary's Four Way Test will go a long way towards achieving the goal of equitable access.

Upcoming Programs

- June 15 Rotary Social - NO LUNCH MEETING
- June 22 Veterans Last Patrol - Claude Schmid
- June 29 NO MEETING

Youth Opportunity Grants are one of the Rotary Club of Spartanburg's signature projects. These competitive grants benefit hundreds of students every year.

Among the current uses of funds are leadership training, educational enrichment, science education, pediatric dental referrals, development of independent living skills and drowning prevention classes. In 2021, the Rotary received 20 requests totaling $82,511, of which seven requests were funded for a total of $29,262.

Organizations funded this year included:

The Citizens Scholars Institute, Healthy Smiles of Spartanburg, Hope Center for Children, The Palmetto Council of Boy Scouts of America, The Salvation Army of Spartanburg and Union Counties, VCOM The YMCA of Greater Spartanburg
