Last Week's Program

Our guest speaker last week was Lt. Governor Pamela Evette, who told us that she sees her role as serving as an ambassador for the Governor. She pointed out that South Carolina has 170,000 women owned businesses, ranking #4 in the country. She also provided an overview of how the state government responded to the COVID pandemic.

Upcoming Programs

- Nov. 30 SC Historical Preservation Society
- History of Spartanburg - Scott Stephens
- Dec. 7 Department of Natural Resources (DNR)
- Robert Boyles
