Today's Program

Today's Song: Musical Number by The Spokes - Plus 1

Today's Invocation: Derham Cole

Health & Happiness: Ryan Gaylord

Today's Program: My Son the Atheist! Thank God!
- Yossi Liebowitz

Last Week's Program

The guest speaker at our last meeting was Ryan Clary, station manager at Fox Sports Radio, WSPG 1400AM and 98.3FM, also known as the voice of the Spartanburg Vikings and the Presbyterian College Blue Hose. He created and is a co-host of the afternoon call-in show Open Mic Daily. He gave us insight into the strategy of offering lucrative contracts to college head football coaches and how that affects recruiting top talent. He told us that he is very proud of the station, the only locally owned radio station in Spartanburg.

Upcoming Programs

Dec. 8 Law Enforcement Today - Sheriff Chuck Wright
Dec. 22 Christmas Program Kirk Neely

FUN FACTS

Bobby Lyons

- Got bit on my right side face by a Great Dane when I was 6 years old. Had 60 stitches, plastic surgery, and unsuccessful shock therapy treatment for a severed nerve above my right eye. Not fun experience but still love dogs.
- Grew up in Long Island NY. Started a landscaping business when I was 17 years old in High School with a $1,500 loan from my dad. Paid him off in two weeks and mom complained that I was making more than she was in her full time job.
- Made the Long Island all star baseball team my senior year and played left field in the historic Yankee Stadium for the all star game.
- Recruited for the Clemson baseball team and redshirted in 1986.
- Graduated Clemson with a Civil Engineering degree in 1990.
- Married Nikki Hamrick, of the Hamricks Family Clothing stores. Been married for 26 years with 6 amazing children.
