Shag Weekend Dates for 2020

April 17-18th

Plan for a weekend of Service, Activities and FUN (#5)

Chicken Bog Fundraiser scheduled for Friday October 11th. All members are asked to sell tickets. Tickets will be distributed today (9/17). We need your sold ticket headcounts by our meeting on 10/1. Our regular meeting will happen on 10/8 and a separate pickup day scheduled at Big Bills for 10/11. We will need volunteers on 10/11 to help distribute.

Rotarian of the Week

Kevin Owens

Kevin was born on May 20th and joined Rotary in 2017. He is a graduate of Pleasant Hill High School and the University of South Carolina. is the president of Georgetown Kraft Credit Union and is married to Marry Ann. They have three children and celebrate their wedding anniversary on August 7th. Kevin and his family are members of Pleasant Hill Baptist Church. In his free time, he enjoys Gamecock sports, fishing, hunting and traveling.

Speaker of the Week

Terry Egan, Brookgreen Gardens

Terry Egan, CFRE is the new Director of Philanthropy and Membership at Brookgreen Gardens. He has been in the field of fundraising all of his career, getting his start in United Way Campaigns, then working for a number of Christian Charities. He started a foundation for the Fabricators & Manufacturers Association and merged it with the foundation of television celebrity, John Ratzenberger. Ratzenberger is best known for his role as Mailman Cliff Claven on the TV Sitcom Cheers. Within the last decade he has served as Executive Director of Hospital Foundations in Freeport, IL and Conway, SC.

Terry is married to wife Jennifer and they have four adult children, three of which just graduated from college. One is now an animator for Dreamworks Studios. Terry is an open-water swimmer, having once swam from Alcatraz Island to San Francisco. He is also an avid photographer, often capturing images of sunrises and birds in Huntington Beach State Park.
