Rotarian of the Week - Jack McManus

Jack was born on February 2 in Ft. Lauderdale, FL. He is a graduate of Coral Springs High School and Georgia Southern University.

Jack is the owner of Promotional Outfitters in Georgetown and is a member of the Promotional Products Association International and Wizard Academy. He is the founder and remains involved in King's Ridge Christian School in Alpharetta, GA and volunteers at Hobcaw Barony.

He is married to Kristina and they have one child. Jack and his family are members of Duncan Memorial Methodist Church. In his spare time he enjoys restoring homes and boats and spending time with his friends and family.

Speaker of the Week - Madison B. Cooper

Madison is the VP of Government Affairs for Coastal Carolinas Association of Realtors. Previously, she worked as a Constituent Services and Outreach Representative for several years for the Upstate Regional Office of U.S. Senator Lindsey Graham. She is a native of Georgetown and has a M.B.A. from Clemson University.

Weekly Club News

SPEAKERS NEEDED for meetings on October 20, December 1 and December 15. Please let Kevin Owens or President Angie know if you have someone in mind to speak on these dates.

FALL SOCIAL is tentatively scheduled for October 27th. Annie will update everyone once plans are finalized.

POLIO PLUS contributions will continue through the end of November instead of October as indicated in previous email. To contribute to Polio Plus in honor of John Nanni, please write check payable to the club. Online donations can also be made at <https://my.rotary.org/en/donate>.
