Speaker of the Week - Joel Bacon, C-SPAN

Joel started working at C-SPAN as an intern in the summer of 2013 and has been with the company ever since. He helps lead C-SPAN's community relations team which seeks to engage students, teachers, civic groups, public officials and those interested in politics to share how C-SPAN's unfiltered mission and resources can be used as a Window on Washington to follow the daily happenings of the Federal government.

Since interning, Joel has spent his time at C-SPAN as the receptionist, as a Book TV production assistant, as a traveling C-SPAN representative, and as a producer for C-SPAN's signature call-in show the Washington Journal.

Joel grew up in an Air-Force family and has lived and traveled all over the map, and although he's called Capitol Hill home for the last 6 years he recently got married and now lives happily in Northern Virginia.

Rotarian of the Week - Robin Gabriel

Robin was born on August 9th. She joined Rotary in 2013 and is a graduate of Choate Rosemary Hall School in Wallingford CT, Kenyon College in Gambier OH, and she received her Masters in Museum Education from the George Washington University in Washington, DC. She is employed as the Executive Director of the Kaminski House Museum. In her spare time she enjoys reading, cooking, photography, and playing the flute with the Pawleys Island Community Band.
