Speaker of the Week - Angela Christian, Georgetown County Administrator

Angela Dawson Christian was hired as County Administrator for Georgetown County in March 2020. Her organizational responsibilities include development and implementation of an $87 million budget and leading a team of more than 600 employees. She has obtained her Credentialed Manager (CM) designation from the International City/County Management Association. Only 1,200 people in the nation have earned designation

Prior to coming to Georgetown County, she worked exclusively in local government, specializing in finance and management services in various municipalities in Georgia, Florida, Tennessee and North Carolina.

Angela received her Bachelor of Science degree from Georgia Southern University in Statesboro. She earned her Master of Public Administration from the University of Tennessee in Knoxville. She is a graduate of the Public Executive Leadership Academy at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She is also an avid reader and actively involved in numerous civic and community organizations.

Angela is married to Junie Christian, an avid golfer who is thoroughly enjoying Georgetown County's many wonderful golf courses. They have one daughter who resides in North Carolina.

Rotarian of the Week - Glennie Tarbox

Glennie was born on November 8th and joined Rotary in 1963. He is a graduate of Winyah High School, University of South Carolina, and LSU- School of Banking in Baton Rouge in LA.

Glennie is the owner of Independent Seafood. He is married to Margaret; they have one child and four grandchildren. In his spare time he enjoys fishing and sailing.
