Speaker of the Week - Dalton Floyd

Dalton is an attorney practicing in Surfside Beach. He received his BS degree from USC undergraduate school and his law degree, Cum Laude, from USC Law School in Columbia. While at USC, he lettered in swimming. He served in Turkey for 3 years as a captain in the US Air Force and was certified as Trial and Defense Counsel of the Judge Advocate General Corp.

Dalton is in his 58th year of practicing law. His legal experience is vast and includes time as an Assistant Solicitor and trial attorney. He has organized and served as general counsel for three financial institutions: Waccamaw State Bank, Patriot Federal Saving and Loan; and Sunbank n/k/a South State Bank and is a former Board Member of South State Bank.

Dalton is an avid golfer and served as General Counsel for the Carolinas Section of the PGA for over 25 years. He has a niche in "Golf Law" and is on the adjunct faculty at Charleston School of Law where he also taught ♦Rainmaking 101♦ and ♦Negotiation 101♦. He also does seminars for PGA of America and the National Golf Course Owners Association.

He was awarded "The Order of the Palmetto", the state's highest civilian award by the Governor of South Carolina for service to his state and the Chairman of the South Carolina Higher Education Commission. He served as a member of the Wall Business School Wall Fellows Board, the Coastal Educational Foundation, the CCU Planned Giving Council. He has served as Chairman of the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Winthrop University, President of the South Carolina Higher Education Foundation, and is currently a member of the Coastal Carolina University Board of Trustees and a Trustee of Brookgreen Gardens.

Dalton lives in Murrells Inlet with his wife of 45 years, Linda, and their 2 yellow labs, Cam and Enzo. They have four children.
