Speakers

John Adams, Environmental & Aviation Law & Consulting- January 16th
"Hot Topics from Cold Words"

John Adams Hodge, of John Adams Hodge & Associates, LLC, a firm focusing on environmental and aviation law and consulting will be the speaker. Sharon Hope will serve as his host and introduce him.

Kimberly Tissot, Exec Dir, Able SC- January 23rd
Applying Philosophy of Independent Living to Real Situations

Kimberly Tissot proudly serves as the Executive Director of Able SC where she guides the staff in applying the philosophy of Independent Living to real situations. Kimberly believes in the value of individualized and community-based empowerment as she wants people to recognize their full potential. Kimberly became a self-advocate at an early age, after having her leg amputated from a rare childhood cancer. Kimberly began deciding her style of mobility, becoming the first soccer player with a disability in her town, and speaking up anytime she was treated differently. Kimberly has years of experience advocating for disability inclusion on a local, state and federal level, and also internationally! She also led the efforts of passing groundbreaking legislation, SC Persons with Disabilities Right to Parent Act in 2017.

Kimberly holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Human Development from Boston University, Wheelock College of Education and a Master of Social Work from the University of South Carolina. In 2018, Kimberly was recognized as The State's 20 under 40 Leaders. Her special interests include: parenting with a disability, leadership, youth transition and disability awareness. Kathleen Ganley will serve as Ms. Tissot's host and introduce her.

Deborah DePauli- February 13th
Update on "Save the Children"

SC Save the Children organizer Deborah DePauli will bring an update on this organization's work. Kathleen Ganley will serve as Ms. DePauli's host and introduce her.
