Thought for the Day: Carolyn H. "The best and most beautiful thing in the world cannot be seen or touched but must be felt in the heart."

Happy Dollars: Eddie F, Patrice J, Bill B, Jim O, David B and Trinitde (sorry if we didn't get the spelling right)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Here's your chance to rub elbows with Rotary or at least District Royalty and enrich our club at the same time. Cars 2nd Chance would like volunteers to work the Kernitz Magic at both PETS and the boot camp for presidents-elect, in San Jose (March 1-3), and the District Conference in Sacramento (April 26-28). Our president will be glad to help you get to at least one of these.

PROGRAM

Guest Speaker - Anna Bevilacqua - "Teaching in Prison"

Bevilacqua was a tenured professor of sociology for 25 years, primarily at Solano Community College, but also taught at Sonoma State University, Mills College, St. Mary's College, Chapman College and Colombia College. During her career she always attempted to teach classes not only at traditional college campuses but also to populations that could not easily get to such campuses. This had her teaching at many Bay Area military bases, to work cohort groups, at satellite locations, and to remote locations via closed circuit technology -- and at four different prisons.

She wrapped up her career as the Dean of Social and Behavioral Sciences at Solano College, and currently enjoys giving presentations about the challenges and little victories which came with teaching incarcerated students.
