Guest Speaker - Dr. Erin Rushing - Audiologist, Owner & Founder of Comprehensive Hearing Solutions

Dr. Erin Rushing received her Doctorate of Audiology in 2012 from Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center. After earning her AuD, she practiced audiology at Creel Hearing Center in Metairie, LA, until 2016. She founded Comprehensive Hearing Solutions in June 2016 to offer exceptional hearing care in the Bayou region.

Dr. Rushing has bachelor's and master's degrees in biology from UL Lafayette. She taught for River Parishes Community College for 15 years. While earning her Doctorate of Audiology, she completed a Leadership Education in Neurodevelopmental Disabilities (LEND) traineeship at LSUHSC and participated in auditory research at Vanderbilt University. She received the 2012 LSUHSC School of Allied Health Professions Chancellor's Award for scholarship, leadership, and professional excellence. She is the current president of the Louisiana Academy of Audiology.

She has a passion for helping others improve their hearing and enjoy all life has to offer.

ROD - Dalton LeBlanc

Dalton has been a Rotarian since 9/13/1972. His Father was a Rotarian, and he recalls attending a meeting with him. He moved back to Houma to be a State Farm Agent in 1972. He has been the owner of LeBlanc Rentals since 1985. Dalton married Marie Clement 25 years ago on 3/27/2024. They have 5 children and 16 grandchildren. His hobbies are chess, traveling and sporting events.

His State Farm agency has serviced the most hurricane claims in Louisiana and has been a top 50 agency in sales out of 18,000 agents. Dalton is a native of Houma, La. and loves our community and Louisiana. He has a master's degree from University of Louisiana Monroe and was President of his Student Body and All American in sports.
