Have fun watching the game and support PolioPlus by purchasing one (or more) football squares. Each square is $10, for a $100 payout each quarter (1st -3rd) and $200 for the 4th quarter. The game is next 11 February 2024! If you are interested or have questions, contact Jamie Maze at 614-580-7000. You can send funds to Jamie through her Venmo account - @jamiemaze - or via PayPal - jamie@jamiemaze.com.

Jamie will have squares at Wednesday's meeting

WARM Food Pantry Volunteers - Save the Dates!

By Marv T. Chandler

Rotary volunteers strengthen our community in many ways. One Saturday per quarter we sort and box food at the WARM warehouse at 150 Heatherdown Drive from 10 am to noon. Our scheduled Saturdays in 2024 will be:

- March 16
- June 8
- September 7
- November 9

We invite you to join in on the fellowship and fun. Feel free to invite your family, friends, and prospective Rotarians to join us too. A sign-up website will be available in the coming weeks. For more information, please contact Mary Chandler at (614) 523-0437.

Blues Beads and Bourbon- What to Wear

Several people have asked about the "dress code" or, what the heck should they wear to Blues Beads and Bourbon?

There is no "dress code" per se; the event can be as casual or as dressy as folks want it to be! Just like pretty much anything goes at Mardi Gras, the same thing applies here. Really, all we ask is that people be clothed!

Our entertainment is a blues band, and they tend not to be terribly dressy.

That said, there will be folks who will go full Mardi Gras masquerade, including new costumes or flapper attire repurposed from the Speakeasy, with feather masks, headdresses, boas and beads. There will also be folks who wear regular clothes, perhaps in the Mardi Gras colors of purple, gold and green. For example, Theresa P is going full Mardis Gras masquerade, I may wear my speakeasy outfit, but with Mardis Gras beads, while my partner will probably be in jeans and a regular shirt!

That's probably not helpful, but truly, folks should wear what they are comfortable in- and know that there will be a very wide range of attire.

Laissez les bons temps ruler!
