Thursday's Guest Speaker (Last Meeting of the Year!)

Captain Justin Cromer serves as the Section Commander for the Ohio State Highway Patrol's Aviation Section. A twenty-year veteran of the Division, he oversees the aerial public safety operations of the state of Ohio. Additionally, he serves as the chair of the Aviation Committee for the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

Captain Cromer received his Bachelors of Science degree in Professional Aeronautics from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University in 2001. He holds a commercial pilots certificate with instrument rating as well as Certified Flight Instructor certificates in both airplanes and helicopters. He is also a part 107 certified UAS drone operator. He has nearly 10,000 hours of flight experience.

Bring Cash

At this week's meeting we will pass the hat in order to provide a Christmas/annual tip to the staff that sets up our meeting area and food service each meeting.
